

cuit Court of Garrett County. And the qualified voters of any of said elections shall be bona fide male residents; shall be twenty-one years of age or over, of said town of Friendsville, who have been residents of the State for the period of one year and of said town for the period of six months continuously next before the date of any such election; and that no one shall be eligible for the office of Mayor or Councilman of said town unless he shall be a real estate owner or husband of a bona fide real estate owner in the said town. And the Mayor shall have been a resident of said town for three years previous to his election, and the Councilmen shall have been residents of said town two years prior to their election. Qualifications.

IIID. The said Mayor and Council may from time to time cause an assessment to be made of all the property liable to the State and county taxes within the corporate limits, and to levy a tax thereon not exceeding twenty-five cents on one hundred dollars in any one year, and that said property shall be assessed at its actual cash value, and that the land included within the above named corporate limits, which have not been laid out as town lots or as town property shall be exempt from taxation, with the exception of the buildings and personal effects thereon. And the said Council may appoint an assessor and collector of taxes and fix his salary for compensation, and provide for a method of collecting the taxes by ordinance, and also the method of making assessments; and any person aggrieved by any assessment made under this provision shall have the right of an appeal to the said Mayor and Council of said town of Friendsville. Liability of property in town for taxes.

IIIE. It shall be the duty of the said Mayor of the said town to see that the ordinances of the town are duly and faithfully executed, and he shall appoint, subject to the confirmation of the Council, all such persons as agents and servants of said corporation as may be necessary to carry out the objects and purposes of the corporation, and enforce the ordinances to be passed thereby. Duty of the Mayor.

IIIF. The said Council shall have power to pass all such ordinances not contrary to the Constitution and laws of this State as it may deem necessary for the good government of the town, for the protection and preservation of the town's property, rights and privileges; for the preservation of the peace and good order and securing persons and property from violence, danger and destruction; for the protection of the health, comfort and convenience of the citizens of Friendsville and visitors thereto, or sojourners therein; for providing Power of the Council.
